

GRAND RAPIDS FEDERATION OF MUSICIANS SCHOLARSHIP FUND

2025 APPLICATION FORM

Donald D Armstrong Scholarship

APPLICATION DEADLINE: APRIL 15, 2025

The Grand Rapids Federation of Musicians Scholarship Fund, Inc., is offering one $300.00 scholarship this year for an instrumental music student who is currently a high school junior. The purpose of the scholarship is to assist in providing a musical experience, such as a music camp or individual instruction, for students who will be returning to their school instrumental music programs in the fall. Consideration is based equally upon financial need, teacher recommendation, and the student's musical goals and achievements.

REQUIREMENTS

- 1) Nominees are to be selected by their school instrumental music instructor.
- 2) The applicant must be actively participating in an ensemble within the school's music program.
- 3) The applicant must be a junior in high school and intend to return as a participant in the school music program as a senior.
- 4) The award must be used for individualized study (private lessons) and/or ensemble coaching, enhancing musicianship with either a private instructor or at a music camp, workshop, or seminar.
- 5) Only one application may be submitted per school. The school must be located within the jurisdiction of the Grand Rapids Federation of Musicians (visit our website GrandRapidsMusicians.org for the list of counties in Michigan).
